The Head / Director,

University of Jammu,
Jammu

Distance Education & OE.

Subject: Introduction of Editorial Service under CAS / SDI Services.

Dear Sir / Madam,

This is to bring to your kind notice that the Dhanvantri Library at the University of Jammu has always strived to provide students and faculty with the best facilities and services to support their academic pursuits. In line with this commitment, the Library has recently launched the editorial service, which aims to assist in the development and refinement of scholarly works produced by the University's faculty and students and it will also contribute to the overall reputation and standing of the University's research outputs. The editorial service is now accessible through the University Web Portal and all the departments are requested to take full advantage of this invaluable resource.

The editorials provide an invaluable platform for students to express their thoughts, improve their vocabulary, writing ability, vision, develop critical thinking skills and engage in democratic conversations. By doing so, editorials contribute to the growth and development of young minds and nurture responsible and engaged citizens of the future. To access the editorial service, please visit the University Web Portal at <https://jammuuniversity.ac.in/index.php/node/5856>.

It is further requested to your goodself to kindly disseminate this information among the faculty and students of your department, as it will undoubtedly contribute to their academic success and growth.

Thanking you,

Yours truly,

Vikram Singh Sahi
